ARTICLE XI. Conflicts of Interest

Section 1. Director Conduct: No director, officer, or committee member of the AOG shall request or accept any interest or favor (financial or otherwise) that might influence his or her actions relating to the AOG or its affiliated organizations. The Board acknowledges that conflicts of interest may occasionally arise and that neither the elimination from the board of all persons who might potentially have any such conflict nor the avoidance of all transactions involving a conflict of interest would necessarily serve the best interests of the AOG. Nonetheless, each member of the Board is encouraged to avoid undisclosed conflicts of interest and to refrain from influencing the Board's action on a matter in which such director is financially interested. It is therefore the policy of the AOG to avoid the participation of any director in the Board's consideration of a matter which poses a conflict of interest for that director.

- a. For these purposes, a conflict of interest shall be deemed to arise whenever a matter under consideration involves the potential for significant benefit to a director or to any business, financial, or professional organization of which the director or a member of such director's immediate family is an officer, director, member, owner, or employee.
- b. Whenever any matter comes before a meeting of the Board which gives rise to a potential conflict of interest, the affected director shall make known the conflict to the remaining directors present at such meeting, shall, after answering any questions posed by the other directors, withdraw from the meeting for as long as the matter is under consideration, and shall neither be present, nor cast a vote.
- c. If the withdrawal of the affected director results in the absence of a quorum, no action shall be taken on the matter in question until a quorum of disinterested directors can be established.
- d. The minutes of a meeting at which a conflict of interest arises shall reflect that a disclosure was made, the affected director's withdrawal from the meeting and abstention from voting, and, if action is taken on the matter, the continued presence of a quorum.
- e. As with all other matters coming before the Board, the disinterested directors shall pass upon a matter that poses a conflict of interest for another director in a manner which they reasonably and in good faith believe to be in the best interests of the AOG.

- f. In the event an issue is not resolved at the committee or Board level, the matter shall be referred to the Governance Committee for review. For the purposes of ethics oversight, the Governance Committee may request participation by at least one friend of the AOG not actively involved in activities of the Board who is qualified to assist in ethics advice.

Section 2. Reporting: Directors and officers shall use their best efforts to avoid any new employment, activity, investment or other interest which might involve an obligation to make a disclosure of a situation which may be in competition or conflict with the best interest of the AOG and, in all events, shall promptly disclose the same as they may arise in the future.
